

Saw Ye My Saviour?

569

“Communion Hymn” by Mary Baker Eddy

1. Saw ye my Sav - iour? Heard ye the glad sound?
 2. Mourn - er, it calls you,—“Come to my bos - om,
 4. Strong - est de - liv - erer, friend of the friend - less,

Felt ye the pow - er of the Word? 'Twas the Love wipes your tears all a - way, And will Life of all be - ing di - vine: Thou the Truth that made us free, And was found by you and lift the shade of gloom, And for you make ra - dant Christ, and not the creed; Thou the Truth in thought and me In the life and the love of our Lord.

 room Midst the glo - ries of one end - less day.” to verse 3 deed; Thou the wa - ter, the bread, and the wine.

3. Sin - ner, it calls you,—“Come to this foun - tain, Cleanse the foul sens - es with - in; 'Tis the Spir - it that makes pure, That ex - alts thee, and will cure All thy sor - row and sick - ness and sin.”

WORDS: Mary Baker Eddy

MUSIC: Désirée Goyette

Music © 2008 The Christian Science Board of Directors

LINCOLN

10.7.7.9.

Alternate tunes: 298–302, 568, 570, 571